Membership Fees

Membership fees for the Congregation cover the September 1 - August 31 fiscal year. Checks should be made payable to Kol Haskalah.

____ Family Membership: $440 ____ Individual Membership: $300

Membership is open to all who wish to support our mission and will not be denied based on financial situation. Alternate payment schedules may be arranged by contacting the Treasurer or a Co-President. All such information will remain confidential.

For new members who join our Congregation within three months after purchasing tickets to our High Holiday services, the cost of the tickets will be applied to the Membership fee.

These fees include membership in the Society for Humanistic Judaism.

In order to be considered a member-in-good-standing and to have voting rights, dues must be current.

The Congregation is especially appreciative of members who wish to contribute more than the minimum support. Donations are gratefully accepted to help enhance our Sunday School, as a tribute or memorial to a loved one, and/or to support the general fulfillment of our mission.

I/We understand that the Congregation (as per our bylaws and our desire to minimize the use of paper) regularly sends notices of Congregational business, meetings and events to members via email only.
